STORM'S DIRE EFFECT.

New Yorkers Beginning to Feel It With a Vengeance.

FOOD ADVANCES IN PRICE.

Supply Rather Short, Snow Making Transportation Impossible.

RAILWAYS ARE STILL TIED UP.

However, Smiling Skies and Abating Winds Give Promise of a Goodly. Tomorrow—Ocean Steamers Are Now Flocking Into Port.

New York, Feb. 14.—The people of New York are enjoying the first sunshine they have had since Friday, but the situation as regards railway traffic continues serious. The city is still cut off for the most part from rail communication with the outside world.

No out-of-town mails were received in the city during the night. An attempt will be made to send away at least a portion of the out-going mails which are piled up in the New York and Brooklyn postoffices.

A New York Central train which left the Grand Central depot arrived at Tarrytown, after fighting snowdrifts all night. The train had about 200 women on board. New York City is coming now to feel the effects of the storm on its food supply. Provisions have almost doubled in price. The warehouses are full of flour, but the deep snow in these streets makes deliveries almost impossible.

The coal supply in New York is limited, and barges from Perth Amboy and other terminal points cannot reach their slips because of the ice. Many factories have been compelled to shut down. The suffering among the poor is intense.

Mrs. Charles Morrissey, a widow, 70, of Jersey City, sank exhausted in the snow and died before medical assistance could arrive. Mary Dolan, 70, was found frozen to death in her room.

For Relief of the Poor.

New York, Feb. 14.—In response to the piteous cries for aid that went up from many sections of the city, Governor Roosevelt has ordered the opening of all the regimental armories for the shelter of such portions of the homeless poor as might take refuge there. "I am aware that there is some question as to whether or not I have the legal right to do this," said the governor, in announcing what he had done, "but I feel confident that the legislature will back me up in what I have done."

Travelers Snowbound.

Pittsburg, Feb. 14.—Over 200 persons who were on western trains leaving here Sunday and Monday are snowbound at Altoona and are quartered at the Logan house. A made-up section of the fast line was started from Altoona, but it stuck in a snowdrift at Allegripus and is still imprisoned there. The passengers were taken back to Altoona. A cattle train was caught in the storm and every animal perished. A car load of hogs was frozen.

Special Weather Bulletin.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The great Atlantic coast storm has passed on to the Nova Scotia coast with rapid velocity and almost unprecedented development. Owing to the extent and the extreme destructiveness this storm will always be remembered as the greatest storm in the history of the Atlantic coast states. An area of low pressure is approaching from the far west, and under its influence the temperatures will be generally rising.

Ocean Steamers Coming In.

New York, Feb. 14.—With a clear sky overhead once more, the ocean steamers began coming in. First the Cunarder Etruria and Holland-American liner Spaarndam were sighted off Fire Island. Next the American liner Paris was sighted off the highlands. Then the Anchor line Anchoria, from Glasgow, was reported in quarantine. Two other steamers also came in.

Crew Still Missing.

Baltimore, Feb. 14.—It was said at the office of the Merchants and Miners' Steamship company that no word had reached there from the three boats reported missing and containing officers and members of the crew of the steamship Lawrence, reported off Port Royal S. C. All officers and members of the crew of the Lawrence live here.

Storm Has Ceased.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The storm has swept past Washington, and the sun shines bright from a clear blue sky on a city buried approximately three feet deep in snow. Washington is cut off from railroad communication with the outside world, but now that the storm has ceased the companies have started to open up their lines.

Zero In Florida.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 14.—Telegraphic communication to Florida has been kept up spasmodically only the past two days. It has been ascertained that the coolest weather ever known had just passed over the northern part of Florida. The zero mark was reached at Pensacola.

Snow Up to the Second Stories.

Boston, Feb. 14.—Boston and vicinity is snowbound after two days and two nights of continuous snowfall. The streets are badly blocked, trains are stalled, and on all sides the snow is piled into great drifts, some of which, in the suburbs, reach to the second story windows. The street car lines, by continuous efforts on the part of the management, were kept free.

Damaged by Gales.

New York, Feb. 14.—The steamer Catania, which left St. Michaels, where she had put in for repairs 19 days ago, and about whose safety much anxiety was felt, passed Sandy Hook, bound in. The Catania left Glasgow on Dec. 18 for New York and put in to St. Michaels on Jan. 4, much damaged from gales.

Trolley Cars Buried.

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—The storm has abated in this vicinity, but traffic of every sort is absolutely at a standstill. The trolley car tracks are buried under yards of drifted snow, and the task of exhuming them seems a hopeless one. Only a minimum amount of business is being transacted.

No Loss Reported.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The life saving service has received no reports of disaster to shipping. The superintendent said that the gale had been off shore and had blown vessels out to sea. He thought the loss to shipping therefore would not be heavy, though some craft may have foundered at sea.

Eastbound Traffic Off.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 14.—After battling against unequal odds with cold weather for five days the railroads have succumbed, and not a through train has left Pittsburg for the east since Monday. Officials were all at sea and were unable to say when traffic could be resumed.

Passenger Train Stalled.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Up to the hour of the convening of the legislature no trains had yet arrived in Albany from any direction. The legislative train which left New York on Monday is stalled down the river, and many members of the legislature are detained there.

Sterling Safe.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Secretary Sharwood, of the Philadelphia Maritime exchange, telegraphed the navy department: "I am pleased to advise that the Sterling, due to a change of wind, has reached a safe anchorage."

Aged Couple Frozen to Death.

Huntington, W. Va., Feb. 14.—Robert Fowler, 83, and Mary Halstead, 74, were frozen to death in the Guyan valley. It is believed that many deaths from similar cause have occurred in that isolated section.

Completely Blocked.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 14.—Wilmington emerged from the blizzard bright and smiling, but buried under snowdrifts that completely stopped travel on the steam railroads passing through the city.

An Overdue Steamer.

Lewes, Del., Feb. 14.—The American line steamship Belgenland, from Liverpool for Philadelphia, due to arrive a week ago, has not been reported and great anxiety is felt for her safety.

Developments at Adams Inquest.

New York, Feb. 14.—Roland B. Molineaux was present when the investigation at the inquest of Mrs. Kate Adams was resumed. He was asked to recall any dispute he had ever had with Harry Cornish, of the Knickerbocker Athletic club, and in reply said that their first differences of opinion had occurred in 1896 over improper language used in the club by a man named French. Molineaux complained to Cornish, but got no satisfaction. Mr. Molineaux said that his next difference with Cornish was in the beginning of 1897, when he was asked to get up an amateur circus for April 29. He was chairman of the circus committee and Cornish worked against him in every way he could.

Official From Dewey.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The navy department has received the following Manila cablegram from Admiral Dewey: "Petrel just arrived from Iloilo. That place taken by our force Saturday and now occupied. No prisoners. No casualties on our side. Insurgent loss not known, but believed to be slight. They attempted to burn town, but foreign property generally saved by our force."

IT WAS EASY PICKING.

Capture of Iloilo Accomplished Without an American Mishap.

REBELS' LOSS VERY LIGHT.

Further Particulars of the Storming and Investment of the Capital of the Island of Panay by the American Troops.

Manilla, Feb. 14.—Particulars of the capture of Iloilo by the United States forces under Brigadier General M. D. Miller, upon Saturday last, have been received here.

On the morning of Friday, Feb. 10, General Miller sent an ultimatum to the commander of the rebels on shore, notifying him that if was his intention to take Iloilo, by force if necessary. Non-combatants and foreigners were warned to leave town within 24 hours. The rebels were also warned that they must make no further belligerent preparations.

The gunboat Petrel was then moved to a position close in shore and near the rebel fort, while the cruiser Boston took up her station at the other end of the town. Friday passed quietly. During the day many refugees left the town of Iloilo. The majority of them were taken on board foreign ships lying in the harbor.

Searchlights from the United States warships were kept all night long illuminating the town and its defenses. The rebels, so far as the lookout on the ships could discover, remained quiet throughout the night.

At 8 o'clock on the morning of Saturday, Feb. 11, the gunboat Petrel signalled to the cruiser Boston that the rebels were working in their trenches. In return the Petrel was ordered to fire warning shots upon the town from her three-pounders. This was done and thereupon replied with a harmless fusillade. The Boston and the Petrel then bombarded the rebels' trenches, completely clearing them of their occupants in a very short space of time.

Fired the Town.

Soon after the bombardment began flames broke out simultaneously in various parts of the town. Thereupon 48 marines, acting as infantry and artillery, were landed from the cruiser Boston, and a company was sent ashore from the gunboat Petrel. These detachments marched straight into the town of Iloilo, and hoisting the stars and stripes over the fort, took possession of the place in the name of the United States.

The capture of the town and its defenses having been accomplished, the marines and soldiers who had been sent ashore proceeded to the task of saving the American, English and German consulates from destruction by the fire which raged among the frail and inflammable buildings of the town. The Swiss consul's residence, which was in the same row as the consulates named, was burned. The entire Chinese and native sections of the town were destroyed, but foreign mercantile property escaped with slight damage.

There was some desultory firing by the enemy in the outskirts of Iloilo, but not a single American was injured. General Miller's force had complete control of the situation when the gunboat Petrel sailed from Iloilo for Manila. The Sixth United States artillery regiment occupied a position commanding both the bridges leading into the town, and the Tennessee volunteers and the Eighteenth United States Infantry were occupying the trenches that had been constructed by the rebels.

This Is Worthy of Emulation.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The city council, of Wurzburg, Bavaria, has just taken action which Commercial Agent Ster, at Bamberg, says is worthy of imitation in the United States. In accordance with this action the teeth of the poor pupils of the public schools of Wurzburg, are to be examined and cared for free of cost, provided the parents gave their consent. It is also intended to treat diseases of the ear and throat in like manner, should the teeth experiment prove successful.

Spanish Prisoners Sail Away.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The war department received the following advice from General Otis under date of Manila, Feb. 14: "One hundred and eighty officers and 1,800 men, Spanish prisoners of war, left port on the 12th and 13th by steamers Reina Christina and Uruguay, enroute to Spain."

In Committee of the Whole.

Washington, Feb. 14.—About 100 members of the house were in their places, when Speaker Reed called the house to order. After passing several bills of minor importance, the house went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill.

FIRE, WATER AND SMOKE.

Half Million of Property Destroyed in the Heart of Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 14.—A fire causing a loss of $500,000 started mysteriously in the upper back stories of the hat manufactory of Kahn, Falheimer & Co., on West Third street, near Race, and before the engines could get to work had communicated to the clothing house of H. A. Seinsheimer & Co. Next to that stood the corner building, occupied by Sanford, Varner & Storrs, containing a valuable stock of clothing and material.

The first named buildings were entirely burned out. The firemen succeeded in saving the corner building at the expense of practically ruining the contents. The entire fire department was called and a perfect deluge of water was thrown. Nevertheless the fire found its way into the rear of buildings fronting on Race street, occupied by S. L. Waller & Co, Louis Wald & Co., and Reins & Meins, all clothiers, and causing considerable loss, though it was checked before the buildings were destroyed.

In an hour the fire was under control after a stubborn fight, in which the firemen suffered from the cold and the floods of water through which they were obliged to walk. The guests at the St. Nicholas hotel became alarmed by the proximity of the fire, and most of them prepared for flight. Snow covering the roofs of adjacent buildings extinguished the shower of sparks and the flying brands that were carried by the wind. The insurance is about two-thirds of the loss.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Feb. 14.—The Akron Excelsior club, Akron; the Farrington Lumber company, Winton Place, $50,000; the Knights and Ladies of Lafayette, Findlay; the Minor Fire Brick company, Cleveland, $50,000; the Scharzschild & Sulzberger Beef company, Cleveland, $5,000.

Through a Funeral Procession.

Massillon, O., Feb. 14.—A Pennsylvania train crashed through Mrs. Thomas Ratchford's funeral procession at North Lawrence. The horses attached to one carriage were instantly killed. The occupants were thrown over an embankment, narrowly escaping death.

Murdered by Disease.

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—The police have come to the conclusion that heart disease is the murderer of Jacob Gerbrand, whose dead body was found in the engine room of the Hunt stamping works early Monday morning covered with wounds, and that rats are the mutilators.

Blaze In a Hotel.

Elyria, O., Feb. 14.—A fire in the Toplift hotel filled the house with smoke, and caused great excitement among the guests. The loss amounts to $2,000, fully insured. The loss was mostly caused by smoke and water.

Newspaper Change.

Ashtabula, O., Feb. 14.—The Ashtabula Daily News-Journal was sold to the Wilson Clark company, publishers of the Daily Record.

Massillon Boy Among the Killed.

Massillon, O., Feb. 14.—Samuel Koons, of Massillon, is reported killed at Manila. Koons enlisted in a California regiment.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Feb. 14.—Silas Jones and his six children were burned to death on the Richardson and May plantation at Cornerstone. Jones' house and all its contents were destroyed.

Miles Court of Inquiry.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The Miles' charges court of inquiry will not begin Wednesday, some members being stormbound.

IT SQUEEZED THROUGH

Senate Passes McEnery's Resolution Anent the Philippines.

HAD A MAJORITY OF FOUR.

Bacon's Declaratory Amendment Failed to Reach by One Vote—Provisions of the McEnery Resolution.

Washington, Feb. 14.—When the senate convened at 11 o'clock but nine senators were present. A little later, however, the usual quota dropped in to take part in the discussion on the Philippine declaratory resolutions.

Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, first took the floor in opposition to the McEnery resolution and in favor of retaining the Philippines. Lindsay (Ky.) and Bacon (Ga.) also opposed the McEnery resolution. Mr. Mason said that he voted for the treaty with the understanding that there should be no further war in the Philippines.

At 2:35 a vote was taken by the senate on the Bacon amendment to the McEnery resolution. The Bacon amendment read: "That the United States hereby disclaim any disposition or intention to exercise permanent sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over said islands, and assert their determination when a stable and independent government shall have been erected therein entitled in the judgment of the government of the United States to recognition as such, to transfer to said government upon terms which shall be reasonable and just, all rights secured under the cession by Spain, and to thereupon leave the government and control of the islands to their people." This was defeated 29 to 29, the vice president voting in the negative.

Next came the vote on McEnery's resolution. It passed by a vote of 26 to 22.

The McEnery resolution is as follows: "By the ratification of the treaty of peace with Spain, it is not intended to incorporate the inhabitants of the Philippine islands into citizenship of the United States, nor is it intended to permanently annex said islands as an integral part of the territory of the United States; but it is the intention of the United States to establish on said islands government suitable to the wants and conditions of the inhabitants of said islands, to prepare them for local self-government and in due time to make such disposition of said islands as will best promote the interests of the citizens of the United States and the inhabitants of said islands."

WAREHOUSE IN RUINS.

Loss on Building and Valuable Contents May Reach a Million.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Frozen water plugs prevented the fire department getting a stream on flames that broke out in a seven-story warehouse on West Water street and resulted in great damage.

Owing to the heroic efforts of Eddie Lowe, an office boy, several people were saved from being burned to death. The lad ran from floor to floor and spread the alarm, and not until he saw that every one had made good his escape did the boy leave the structure.

The losses fall most heavily on some 50 or 60 firms which had goods stored in the building, but insurance was carried by most of them. The building was packed from basement to roof with goods, the value of which cannot be estimated, as they came from a hundred different quarters. The loss on the building is placed at $25,000, and that of the contents anywhere between $250,000 and $1,000,000.

Effect on the Mardi Gras.

New Orleans, Feb. 14.—The weather in New Orleans has moderated somewhat, but it is still too cold and damp under foot to make pedestrianism pleasant. The city is filled with visitors and the Rex parade took place, but there is a noticeable absence of promiscuous maskers, whose presence on the streets is always one of the features of the carnival. The warship Chicago, which was ordered here for the carnival, has not yet arrived. It is thought she is detained by the storm.

High Commissions Can't Agree.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The high joint commission held a short session. A rumor prevailed in congressional circles that negotiations were practically at an end and would fail, but this was denied by Senators Fairbanks and Faulkner, who are members. It was learned, however, that there are questions upon which no agreement can now be reached.

Babes Perished In the Flames.

Tionesta, Pa., Feb. 14.—During the absence of the parents the home of Alonzo Andrews was destroyed by fire and two children, aged 1 and 3 years, perished in the flames.

EDITOR C. C. MOORE of the Bluegrass Blade who is in the Columbus (O.) penitentiary, states that he is assistant superintendent of the prison paper, The News, and also holds an executive position in the printing department. Mr. Moore says he has been treated with great kindness and consideration. He says he is ensconced in a comfortable office, with suitable furniture and that with his new prison suit on he looks like a Confederate General. His letter indicated that he was by no means in a depressed state of mind and was not worrying over his surroundings. His Lexington friends are making an effort to secure a pardon for him.

MR. MORRIS COUGHLIN, whose case was mentioned in Tuesday's BULLETIN, had a very narrow escape from freezing to death on his trip to Peed, to bury the late John Flanagan. His hands and arms were frozen up to the elbow, and when he reached the Flanagan home his eyes were frozen so tight he could not see where he was driving. His team passed the gate when a party on the pike saw Mr. Coughlin's condition and went to his help. When he was taken into the house, some one unthoughtfully pulled his eyelids apart, badly injuring them. Mr. Coughlin is now at his home on West Third street, and is getting along very well, considering his narrow escape.

To Poison His Little Brother.
Uniontown, Pa., Feb. 14.—Carl Norcross, a well-known and well-to-do young man of this place, is in jail on the charge of endeavoring to secure the murder of his little brother Allen, 10, by administering poisoned candy. A few hours after his arrival Norcross swallowed poison, and he is still unconscious, and very little hopes of his recovery are entertained. Norcross and his brother inherited a fortune of $25,000, and a large portion of the former's share, it is said, has been dissipated.

Bryan Talks to Republicans.
St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 14.—Colonel William J. Bryan, who was in this city for a Democratic banquet, visited the legislature and was invited by the house of representatives, 90 of whose 119 members are Republicans, to address that body, a most unusual courtesy, for which Colonel Bryan returned very eloquent thanks. His remarks were clear from politics. A recess was then taken in order that the legislature might greet the distinguished visitor.

Committee of Financial Legislation.
Washington, Feb. 14.—General Grosvenor, of Ohio, chairman of the Republican caucus, announced the appointment of the following Republicans of the house as members of the committee on financial legislation, provided for by the resolution of the Republican caucus: Henderson (Ia.), Payne (N. Y.), Dalzell (Pa.), Kerr (O.), Hawley (Tex.), Lovering (Mass.), Pearce (Mo.), Curtis (Kan.), Loud (Cal.), Babcock (Wis.), Morris (Minn.).

Boiler Combine.
Trenton, N. J., Feb. 14.—Articles of incorporation were filed by the American Radiator company, with an authorized capital of $10,000,000. The company is empowered to manufacture and deal in radiators, boilers and other heating apparatus.

Had No Quorum.
Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 14.—The members of the legislature were not able to reach here, and the joint ballot showed the absence of a quorum. It resulted: Quay (R.), 17; Dalzell (R.), 1; Jenks (D.), 2.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.
Cold Weather Caused a Material Falling Off in the Sales—Most Grades New Burley Firm and Active.

[Furnished by Glover & Durrett, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.]
Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,189 hhds., with receipts for the same period 1,613 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 23,484 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1898 on our market to this date amount to 28,420 hhds.

New Burley.—There was a material falling off in sales last week as a result of weather conditions. After selling at two houses on Thursday, the sales were adjourned on account of the extreme cold. Our market for new burley, except the very common grades, has been firm and active with an advancing tendency and with the better grades of leaf selling notably higher. Sales have been made for the best leaf at prices ranging from $12 to $10 with frequent sales between $9 and $12.

Old Burley.—Our market has been decidedly stronger for old burley. One lot of nine hhds. of old burley was sold at the following prices: $24, $23.50, $23.50, $21.50, $19, $18, $17.50, $17, $15. The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco (1898) crop:
Trash (green or mixed)..... 2 50@3 30
Common good trash..... 3 50@5 00
Medium to good color trash..... 5 00@7 00
Common lugs, not colored..... 4 00@5 00
Common color lugs..... 5 50@6 00
Medium to good color lugs..... 6 00@8 00
Common to medium leaf..... 6 00@8 00
Good to fine leaf..... 8 00@11 00
Select wrappry leaf..... 10 00@17 25

By a Powder Explosion.
Pittsburg, Feb. 14.—One man was killed, one fatally and four seriously injured by a powder explosion at Moss-grove. The victims were members of a construction gang and were blasting rocks near Moss-grove. It is supposed that a spark from a pipe ignited a keg of powder.

Anarchy in Samoa.
Auckland, N. Z., Feb. 14.—Advices received here from Samoa, under date of Feb. 8, reported that anarchy and rebellion still prevail there. The provisional government persist in interfering with the British subjects, and also with servants of British residents.

PLUMVILLE.
Mumps are epidemic in this vicinity. Mrs. W. C. Jenkins is reported quite ill. A. L. Redman was confined to his home the past week with a severe cold. Miss Rena Mae Coryell was a guest of her cousin, Miss Cora Lewman, near Tollesboro the past few days. Elder T. J. Bowman will fill his regular appointment at the church here next Sunday morning and evening. An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford died Saturday, of pneumonia. Interment Sunday at Maysville cemetery. Little Mayme Blythe was bitten on the face, near her eye, by a dog at the home of her grandfather, J. L. Cruey, a few days ago.

J. L. Bean was a guest of the family of his cousin, John Alexander, at Maysville, the first of last week. He reported a most enjoyable visit. Algie A. Jenkins, of this vicinity, and Miss Annie May Dunbar, of Lewis County, were married February 2nd at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dunbar. Elder J. H. Wallingford removed to Newport last week. His neighbors and his many friends regret his departure. A Mr. Storer, of near Dover, has rented his farm for the coming year. Miss Lavina Cruey, aged nineteen years, died the 6th inst., at the home of her parents after a brief illness, of consumption. Funeral services at Bethany Church, conducted by Elder Robert Tolle Thursday at 12 o'clock. Interment in the cemetery adjoining.

HELENA.
Mrs. Thomas Byron is recovering after an attack of the grip. Miss Mary Devereaux, of Millcreek, spent from Saturday till Monday with Miss Anna J. Byron. The cold wave drove Willis O'Rourke and Tim Moore, of Germantown, to the home of Mrs. Thomas Byron Tuesday. They were en route of Mayslick.

HELENA STATION.
Miss Jean Brough is in Cincinnati, the guest of Mrs. Swing. Twenty-four below zero was reported last Thursday morning. The earthquake was felt by many Thursday morning, and also Sunday night. Miss Mary Finch left last Wednesday for Chicago to visit her sister, Mrs. Church. Sleighing has been fine for the last ten days—but with zero weather could not be enjoyed. Mrs. Bettie Finch went to Maysville Thursday to be present at the dedication of the opera house.

The many friends of Mrs. Kellar (nee Calvert) of Lexington, were pained to hear of the shooting and killing of her husband. Mrs. Sallie McD-Humphreys visited in Maysville several days last week, and attended the opening of the new opera house. Our public school term will close February 24th. The principal, Professor King, will teach a private term of two months, beginning the 27th.

Our merchant Mr. H. M. Warder seems rather pressed for storage room, as his genial and accommodating clerk in unloading some merchandise from a car deposited a barrel of lard in the cistern. The Debating Society of Richland Academy will have as their subject, "Resolved, That the works of women have been more beneficial to the world than the works of men." The boys on the negative and the girls the affirmative.

ALGER ON THE ARMY BILL.
If It Fails to Pass the Volunteers Will Never Be Released.

New York, Feb. 14.—Speaking at the Brooklyn Union league club's Lincoln day banquet, Secretary of War Alger said that few men could realize what a task it was to gather quarter of a million men from all over the country, arm and equip them, tent them, transport them and make camps for them, to transport 50,000 of them to points 12,000 miles apart, fight battles and close up the war in 113 days. "When the great call rang out on the 23d of April," said General Alger, "thousands of men offered themselves from all over the country. A quarter of a million were taken, and for what they have done they have no apologies to make to the world. They are acquitting themselves as American soldiers. Of the 250,000 men who came, 150,000 have returned to their homes, 125,000 now remain, and we hope that soon we shall have an army such as is fitting for this mighty nation, that we can relieve these volunteers. If this is denied us, I want to pledge you that the men in the field, though their time may be up, will never be released."

Council of Women.
Washington, Feb. 14.—The national council of women heard reports from state and local councils, giving details of the work accomplished by the several organizations. One representative from Canada was present, Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless, of Hamilton, Ont. She spoke upon the subject of manual training in public schools. Rev. Anna Garlin Spencer, representing the state council of Rhode Island, presented a report describing the work undertaken during the past year looking to the abatement of sweatshop evils, the suppression of improper advertisements, theatrical productions and articles in the daily press. Other work on similar lines was also undertaken.

Shipping Prostrated.
New York, Feb. 14.—The blizzard has completely paralyzed shipping. The last vessel to arrive here was the Ward liner Cienfuegos, from Cuba, which came up to her dock early Sunday evening. The maritime outlook at Sandy Hook reports a furious gale, and that there is no cessation in the heavy fall of blinding snow.

Business Section Burned.
Halifax, N. S., Feb. 14.—Fire which started in Letteney & Bros.' dry goods store at Digby spread rapidly and burned the principal business part of the town, between 15 and 20 buildings in all. No accurate estimate of the loss has yet been made. Digby is a town of 2,000 inhabitants, on Annapolis basin.

Famous Priest Dead.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 14.—Very Rev. John Flinnen, 71, pastor of St. John's Catholic church, Pittston, and vicar-general of the Scranton diocese, is dead of diabetes. He came to Pittston in 1859, and built up a great church property in his parish.

Soldiers Succumb.
Washington, Feb. 14.—The war department was advised of the death of Lieutenant Colonel Gales Ramsey, Seventh artillery, at Augusta, Ga., and of the death of James Baisley, Forty-seventh New York volunteers, stationed in Porto Rico.
